HOUSE RULES

1. These house rules apply to all visitors of the Haltpop festival grounds. By entering the grounds you agree with the terms and conditions of Stichting Haltpop.
2. By entering the festival grounds you agree that photographic materials featuring your image made during the festival may be used by Haltpop for promotional means or may be published in any other way.
3. Always follow instructions from Haltpop employees.
4. Entrance to the festival grounds is only possible by showing a valid ticket or wrist band. Wrist bands are strictly personal. When your ticket or wrist band has been lost, you can purchase a new one at the entrance to the festival.
5. Visitors are obliged to show a valid identification card when requested by a Haltpop employee.
6. No alcohol is provided to visitors under age 18. 18+ wrist bands are handed out by Haltpop employees to visitors over the age of 18.
7. Tin and glass containers are not allowed on the festival grounds. Contents of these can be transferred to cups at the entrance.
8. Drugs are not allowed at the festival grounds. Nitrous oxide cartridges and -balloons are also not allowed.
9. Everyday values are in effect at Haltpop. Threatening, violence, discrimination and (sexual) intimidation, both verbally and non- verbally, are not tolerated at the festival.
10. When violating one or several of these house rules Haltpop is allowed to deny (further) access to the festival without refunding costs in any way.
11. Enjoying yourself is mandatory. Have fun at Haltpop!
